Gov. Justice holds press briefing on COVID-19 response - O...

CHARLESTON, WV – Gov. Jim Justice joined West Virginia health leaders and other officials today for his latest daily press briefing regarding the State’s COVID-19 response.

WEST VIRGINIA NATIONAL GUARD / FEDERAL ACTIVATION STATUS

During Monday's briefing, Gov. Justice announced that the West Virginia National Guard has received authorization from FEMA to increase the number of personnel on federal activation status to 400 in support of COVID-19 response operations.

The federal government will reimburse the state for 75 percent of the related costs for these personnel. Currently, there are 379 members of the WVNG on duty with additional service members available to provide assistance to the state when needed.

As part of their response to the COVID-19 pandemic in West Virginia, the WVNG has distributed over 19 million pieces of PPE across all 55 counties, performed over 48,430 COVID-19 tests, conducted 632 vehicle disinfections and 161 facility disinfections across 22 counties, trained 834 businesses, 111 long term care facilities or medical practices, and 4,838 civilians on COVID-19 prevention best practices, and produced 220,639 pieces of PPE to date.

"If there is a state with a better National Guard, I'd love to see it, because our guardsmen and women in West Virginia are champions beyond belief and they've done an incredible job," Gov. Justice said. "All West Virginians should be so thankful and so grateful that we have them. We're going to continue to use them and I know they won't quit until this is over and neither will I."

COVID-19 CASE NUMBERS UPDATE

Additionally Monday, Gov. Justice reported that the number of active COVID-19 cases across the state is now 5,095, up from 4,915 last Friday. The cumulative percent of positive cases remained steady at 2.83 percent Monday.

“Our numbers continue to be the envy of the nation but, at the same time, we want them to be even better in West Virginia,” Gov. Justice said. “Our active cases have gone above 5,000. A big part of that is the simple fact that we continue to test more and more and that will pay great dividends as we go forward.”

Meanwhile, West Virginia’s statewide rate of COVID-19 transmission (<https://rt.live/>) – also known as Rt – increased to 1.03 Monday morning; still good enough for the 9th-best such rate of any state in the country.

“We want to be significantly under 1.00, but we’re still ninth best in the country” Gov. Justice said. “Why is that? All you’ve got to do is turn the TV on and look. This disease is running rampant across our country.

“While we’re ninth in the country, and that’s good, we should all realize that this dreaded killer is now ramped up across the United States and that includes West Virginia,” Gov. Justice said. “So we want to stay on our toes. West Virginians, please wear your mask and please listen to all the guidelines.”

West Virginia continues to outperform the national average – as well as the rates of all of its bordering states – in percentage of population positive, and percentage of positive test results.

The Lorrie Yeager Jr. Juvenile Center in Wood County no longer has any known active cases at this time.

There are also 11 active cases among DCR employees across West Virginia.

Other recent church-related outbreaks in Fayette and Tucker counties are no longer considered active at this time.

The Governor reported there remain 43 outbreaks in long-term care facilities across the state.

Gov. Justice also reported that, per the West Virginia Department of Education, there are 19 active outbreaks in public schools across the state. These outbreaks account for 59 confirmed cases.
